Cleaning the Data

Use your raw data to complete the following table. Take time 0 to be the time of your first data point. Take height 0 to be the height of your first data point. Make sure you are measuring in metres, and seconds. Remember if the pumpkin is falling down it's height is not increasing, it is becoming more and more negative.

Time (s)	Height (m)
0	0